How do you control food quality?

Pronto is dedicated to providing meals that are both delicious and nutritionally sound, primarily by focusing on high-quality ingredients, balanced menus, and a transparent, tech-driven delivery experience.

Here is an overview of how we ensure your food is tasty and nutritious:

1. Ingredient Quality and Sourcing

- Fresh and Sustainably Sourced: Some Pronto models prioritize sourcing fresh, sustainably sourced ingredients, which are used by chefs to prepare hot meals in their own kitchens.
- Certified Organic Options: Pronto has featured purveyors, such as Urban Remedy, that offer certified organic, plant-based, and nutrient-rich food that nourishes the body.
- Avoiding Processed Ingredients: Focusing on whole, natural ingredients helps avoid ultra-processed foods, unhealthy additives, and preservatives, which supports better health outcomes.
- Maintaining Freshness: Our use of highly efficient delivery infrastructure, route optimization, and, in some cases, refrigerated vehicles ensures that your fresh food and meat are delivered with their quality intact.

2. Menu Design and Nutritional Balance

- Chef-Designed and Nutritionally Balanced: Chefs design menus to be nutritionally balanced, with meals that include quality ingredients and healthy cooking processes.
- Focus on Essential Nutrients: Meals are often crafted to include essential nutrients like vitamins, minerals, proteins, and healthy fats, helping to prevent nutritional gaps and keep you energized.
- Specific Dietary Needs: We connect you with options that accommodate various dietary needs, such as:
 - Plant-based and organic meals (e.g., Organic Rainbow Salad).
 - Gluten-free, sugar-free, and grain-free options.
 - Low-calorie (e.g., under 500 calories) and high-protein meals.

3. Transparency and Portion Control

- Nutritional Transparency: We provide nutritional information on every food and drink item to give customers the transparency needed to track their daily intake and make informed decisions.
- Built-in Portion Control: By providing balanced and portion-controlled meals, the service helps customers adhere to healthy eating habits and manage weight by consuming appropriate serving sizes.

4. Technology and Speed

- AI for Optimization: We use AI to optimize delivery routes to minimize delays, ensuring your food arrives hot and fresh.
- Efficient Delivery: Our goal is to provide quality food on demand and deliver it quickly (in one case, in less than 25 minutes) to ensure a satisfying customer experience. Speed and optimized delivery help support nutritional diets by preventing fresh food from spoiling and reducing the urge to panic-order unhealthy options.

How do you focus on high quality and nutritious foods?

Pronto's approach to delivering nutritious food focuses on controlling the supply chain and leveraging technology to prioritize healthy options and ingredient quality.

Here is how Pronto works to ensure and "grow" the nutritious quality of the food you receive:

1. Supply Chain Control through Vertical Integration

A specific Pronto business model achieved high quality and transparency by operating as a vertically integrated food technology company. This model gives the company control over critical stages of the food process, including:

- Sourcing and Preparation: Pronto chefs prepare hot meals in their own kitchens using fresh, sustainably sourced ingredients. This approach is often taken to maintain better control over quality and food safety.
- Traceability and Transparency: Controlling the entire process from sourcing to delivery means the company can include nutritional information on every item, a level of transparency that is possible due to the vertical integration model.
- Reduced Costs and Waste: By directly controlling production and eliminating intermediaries, vertical integration offers significant cost savings and allows for the use of predictive analytics to reduce wastage.

2. Technology and Platform Strategy (Aggregator Model)

For Pronto as a general food delivery platform (aggregator), the growth of nutritious options is driven by encouraging partners and optimizing the user experience:

- Incentivizing Healthier Offerings: Pronto can incentivize vendors to develop and offer healthier menu items, such as offering incentives to suppliers for making product improvements (e.g., using healthier frying oils).
- Prioritizing Visibility: The platform's algorithms can prioritize the position of healthier options on landing pages and in search results, actively promoting nutritious choices.
- AI-Driven Recommendations: Our AI can be used to recommend meals and generate personalized, balanced meal plans that conform to your nutritional needs and health goals, steering you toward nutritious options.
- Setting Health Targets: As part of a corporate strategy, a food delivery company can set goals for the proportion of revenue generated from healthier restaurants on the platform.

3. Delivery and Freshness

- Optimized Delivery: Pronto uses efficient delivery infrastructure and technology to optimize delivery routes. This ensures timely delivery, which is crucial for maintaining the quality and freshness of food.
- Refrigerated Transport: Some services related to food delivery use features like refrigerated trucks or insulated containers to keep food fresh and ensure a consistent temperature during transit.

How do you support balanced and healthy food choices?

Pronto helps you discover healthier items through a combination of technology and smart design:

- Intelligent AI Recommendations: Our AI is designed to recommend meals based on preferences. This includes generating personalized, balanced meal plans that fit your dietary needs, health goals, and taste preferences.
- Prioritized Presentation: We encourage the promotion and presentation of healthier options on landing pages and within search results, actively increasing their visibility and accessibility.
- Dedicated Filters: Similar food delivery platforms often offer specific cuisine filters like "Healthy," "Vegan," or "Salad" to quickly show you plant-forward dishes, lean proteins, or meals that meet certain dietary standards.
- Vast Restaurant Selection: Pronto connects you to a diverse range of restaurants, including those that offer menu options tailored to specific needs like low-calorie, high-protein, vegetarian, or gluten-free meals.

How do you support sustainability practices?

Pronto demonstrates its adherence to sustainability through a comprehensive program focusing on waste reduction, resource management, and environmentally friendly practices.

- Recycling and Diversion (for PRONTO Group): The store chain achieves a high rate of 65% or more for recycling or reducing food waste, surpassing the mandatory rate for the restaurant industry.

2. Environmental Initiatives (for PRONTO Group)

 - Using water-saving equipment that is 50% more effective than conventional equipment.
 - Using insulation films to improve air conditioning efficiency in sunlit stores.
- "P LOVE GREEN" Activities: The PRONTO Group has a program where part of the sales from selected "P LOVE GREEN" menu items are donated to organizations for afforestation and greening activities.
